

British Values

The Department for Education has given specific guidance to schools about the need to promote fundamental British values.

British Values are:

- Democracy
- The rule of law
- Individual liberty
- Mutual respect
- Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

At Castle Hill, we know how important it is for these values to be part of our everyday school life. Children learn about these values through the curriculum and in:

- our expectations of their behaviour
- our Golden Rules
- the election and working of our School Council
- our diverse culture at Castle Hill
